DEATHS AND FUNERALS

ALEXANDER W. RANKIN.

The funeral services over the remains of Alexander W. Rankin were held yesterday at 2 p. m. from the Second Ward Assembly hall, Bishop Counselor George Shorten presiding. The singing was furnished by the ward choir, and a quartet composed of Mr. C. W. Hinchcliff, Mr. Hagbert Anderson, Miss Etta and Miss Irma Browning, sang "Rock of Ages," and "I Need Thee Every Hour." Miss Etta Browning sang "Oh, Dry Those Tears," and Miss Irma Browning sang "Oh, My Father," all of which were beautifully rendered. The speakers were Elder L. S. Browning, Elder John G. Ellis and Counselor George Shorten, all of whom spoke of the honorable and moral life of the deceased. "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" was beautifully rendered by the choir, with Mr. Hagbert Anderson as soloist. The members of the Modern Woodmen of America attended in a body, acting as pall bearers, and their ritual was also given at the grave. There was a large number of beautiful floral designs which showed marks of appreciation and esteem for the deceased. The interment was in the City cemetery.

WILHELMINA SEIFFERT.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Seiffert died Saturday at 5 a. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ward E. Sackett, 2653 Lincoln avenue, after an illness of two months from heart trouble and paralysis.

She was born in Stralsund, Germany, Nov. 18, 1839. She was united in marriage and five years later emigrated to America. Her former home was in Pierre, S. D., but has been a resident of Ogden for the past twelve years.

Mrs. Seiffert was respected and honored by all who knew her, and by her intimate friends was known as Grandma. She leaves one son and three daughters to mourn her loss.

The funeral services were held at the Sackett residence at 2:30 p. m., today, Rev. H. D. Zimmerman officiating, assisted by Rev. Lister. The interment was in the City cemetery.

ETHEL PETERSON.

The funeral services over the remains of Ethel Peterson were held yesterday at 1 p. m. at the Taylor ward meeting house, Bishop J. Jardine presiding and conducting. The opening prayer was offered by Thomas Gilson. Mr. Albert Hunter sang "I Know That My Redeemer Lives." The speakers were Nathan Hawks, John Larson, Wm. Hunter, Bishop Robert McFarland and Bishop J. Jardine, all of whom spoke comforting words to the parents and also of the beautiful life of the little girl. Prayer was offered by James R. Hunter. The grave was dedicated by John Larson. The interment was in the City cemetery.

SILAS S. SMITH.

The funeral services over the remains of Silas S. Smith were held yesterday at 2 p. m. at the West Layton meeting house, Bishop David Layton presiding. Several beautiful selections were rendered by the choir. The speakers were President James Grant, John T. Cairns, George Lambert, Nathan Ricks, Nephil Jensen, Patriarch John Smith and President John H. Smith, all of whom spoke very highly of the life led by the deceased. Miss Sarah B. Layton sang "I Know That My Redeemer Lives." There were many friends from Salt Lake and neighboring towns, who came to pay their last tribute of respect and esteem to their departed friend and brother. There were also many beautiful floral designs. The interment was made in the Layton cemetery, Kaysville.

HERMAN HADLEY.

Herman Hadley, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hadley, died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at West Weber. The cause of his death was Bright's disease and death followed an illness of six days.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 o'clock at the West Weber meeting house and interment will take place in the West Weber Cemetery.

Friends may view the remains this evening and Tuesday morning at the residence.

MARTINA MARQUIS.

The funeral services for the late Mrs. Martina Marquis were held at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Larkin & Sons' funeral chapel, Rev. F. V. Fisher, of the First Methodist church, officiating. Members of the church choir furnished music at the services. Interment took place in the Ogden city cemetery.

BABY BEHLING. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Behling was buried at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon following funeral services at the family residence, 2240 Monroe avenue. Interment in the city cemetery.

BOYS MUST QUIT FOOTBALL GAME

Newark, N. J., Oct. 17.—Forty boys, members of the football squad of the Cranford High school, must either quit the game or leave the school. The faculty, backed up by a number of parents, has ruled that football is "too strenuous and dangerous a game for youngsters," the latter term includes all youths up to the average age of the college freshmen. The Cranford High school football eleven will organize a soccer team.
